Description:

Introduction:

Ganesh Chaturthi, a major Hindu festival, celebrates the birth of Lord Ganesha, the elephant-headed deity known for wisdom and prosperity. The festival is marked by elaborate rituals, vibrant decorations, and community festivities. KCGRPI (K.C. Group of Research and Professional Institutes) embraced the spirit of this festival with a series of engaging activities on September 7, 2024.

Event Overview:

1. Inauguration and Decorations:

The celebration commenced with the grand inauguration of the Ganesh idol. The campus was adorned with colourful decorations, including floral arrangements at the entrance. A prominent Ganesh idol was placed at the central hall, decorated with vibrant fabrics and flowers.

2. Cultural Performances:

The event featured a range of cultural performances, including traditional dance and music. Staff participated in performances such as Ganesh Vandana and devotional songs.

3. Pooja and Aarti:

The core of the celebration was the ceremonial pooja (worship) and aarti (devotional songs). A well-attended pooja was conducted by cultural committee ,KCGRPI, who led the gathering in prayers and rituals dedicated to Lord Ganesha. The aarti was followed by the distribution of prasad (sacred offerings) to all attendees.

Conclusion and Immersion:

The celebration concluded with the traditional Ganesh Pooja ceremony. The idol was carried in a procession to a local water body, accompanied by chants and festive music. This ritual signifies the end of the festival and the symbolic return of Lord Ganesha to his divine abode, with hopes for blessings in the coming year.

Conclusion:

The Ganesh Chaturthi celebration at KCGRPI was a successful and vibrant event, reflecting both the cultural richness of the festival and the institute's commitment to community and environmental values. The positive feedback from participants indicates that the celebration fostered a sense of unity and joy among the attendees, making it a noteworthy event in the institute's annual calendar.
